Introduction to Policy Debate Day Camp

July 30 - August 3, 2007 • 8:45 am - 2:15 pm each day •
Highland Park and New Brunswick, NJ

Topics to be covered include:

- Importance of Debate
- Structure of a Debate Round
- Analysis of Resolution
- Research Strategies
- Stock Issues
- Off-Case Arguments
- Logical Fallacies
- Flowing the Round
- Evidence Analysis
- Cross Examination Techniques
- Two Mock Debates
- How do I get started in speech or value debate?

Activities will include creating an affirmative and negative case from this year’s NCFCA policy debate resolution and learning to effectively argue for and against that case, based on the cases prepared during class. This class will prepare students for competition in the NCFCA (National Christian Forensics & Communications Association) debate league.

Registration Fee - $70 per student Visit our website at www.rci.rutgers.edu/~au/debate.htm or email us at manusoratorum@gmail.com for more information.

This camp serves as a prerequisite for Manus Oratorum Debate Club Membership, but is not limited to Manus Oratorum Members!

Not sure if debate is for you?
Not ready to commit for the fall?
Try this camp so you can decide!

Call Eunice Au at 732-937-8960 if you have further questions.