

African Studies Association 46th Annual Meeting: Youthful Africa in the 21st Century

Program Addendum

The information here includes late changes and inadvertent omissions and supersedes the information in the Program. ASA apologizes for any errors that were not caught in time for this addendum.

Moves and Modifications

Listening (Again) for the African Past, II: Political Economy and Social Control in Africa – Comparative Cases (II-G19) will be held Thursday, 3:00 – 5:00 pm (Fairfax B).

The Digital Library Projects Meeting will be held Friday, 10:00 am - 12:30 pm (Kent).

Lessons from Participatory Governance and Development (VI-T1) will be held Saturday, 11:15 am - 1:15 pm (Exeter A and B).

The Eritrean Studies Association Meeting will be held Friday, 8:00 - 9:30 pm (Beacon A).

The African Librarians Council Cooperative African Microforms Project meeting on Friday morning will be held 7:00 - 9:00 am (Gardner A).

NRC Title VI Directors Meeting will be held Saturday, 7:30-8:45 am (Exeter A).

The film “Malangataka Documentary” will be shown Saturday, 7:30-9:30 pm (Back Bay Ballroom C).

Cancellations

Human Rights, Human Wrongs: The Struggle for Justice in Africa (VII-Z40)

The New Partnership for African Development (NEPAD): Implementing the New Vision (VI-Z41)

Reconstituting the State: Contributions from Democratization and Conflict Management Literatures (VI-K6)

Other Corrections and Additions

In Memoriam: ASA wishes to acknowledge the passing of Joseph R. Applegate, professor emeritus of African Studies at Howard University.

The correct title of Joseph Inikori’s book is Africans and the Industrial Revolution in England: A Study in International Trade and Economic Development.

Christopher R. DeCorse: (II-U2) Digging Ghana’s Past: Transformations in the Sociocultural Landscape, 1000-2000 AD is unable to attend the meeting (Akin Ogundiran will chair and serve as discussant).

Bidemi Carrol should be listed as co-author of “From Manpower Planning to the Knowledge Era: World Bank Policies on Higher Education in Africa,” Higher Education and Cultural Production panel (VI-S3).

Sean Redding will chair the roundtable (IX-G18) Listening (Again) for the African Past, I: Roundtable on the Contribution of African Historians to African Historiographies; David Newbury will chair (II-G19) Listening (Again) for the African Past, II: Political Economy and Social Control in Africa.

The correct spelling of the name of the speaker from Montpelier University on the panel (I-C3) Land Rights in the Making and Unmaking of Cote d’Ivoire is Jean Pierre Cheveaux.