

The Caribbean Association for Feminist Research and Action (T&T)

Invites you to participate in a walk through the borough of Chaguanas

In commemoration of:

International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women

Date: Saturday November 29, 2008

Venue: Saith Park, Manick Street, Chaguanas

Assembly Time: 8:00 AM (Walk begins at 8.30 AM)

Route: Starting from Saith Park, Manick Street, proceeds to Ramsaran Street, turns east into Southern Main Road, left into Chaguanas Main Road, turns left at corner of Chaguanas Main Road & Railway Road (Police Station) proceeds into Railway Road, into Ramsaran Street and return to Saith Park

For more information please contact: CAFRA T&T, 662-2851; 765-0678 or Email: taratnt@tstt.net.tt

"Violence against women continues to persist as one of the most heinous, systematic and prevalent human rights abuses in the world. It is a threat to all women, and an obstacle to all our efforts for development, peace and gender equality in all societies."

- Secretary General of the United Nations, Ban Ki-moon

"Human Rights for Women – Human Rights for All"